

IGFR – Pre-Tour in Bordeaux

MEDOC GOLF CLUB : Par 71

www.hotelgolfmedoc.com

The Golf du Medoc, located north from Bordeaux, opened in 1989. The Chateaux course, technical 18 holes in the pure tradition of Scottish links, were designed by American Bill COORE. Native of North Carolina & graduate of Wake Forest University, Coore began his professional design and construction career in 1972 with the firm of Pete Dye and Associates. Under Dyes' guidance, Coore was introduced to the elements of creative design and physical construction.

LACANAU GOLF CLUB : Par 72

www.golflacanau.com

Built on sand dunes in 1980 by the architect John Harris, the course curves through the pine forest by deploying his fairways in a star shape. The technical variety and the diversity of the drawing of the holes confer a deserved international reputation to the course.

MARGAUX GOLF CLUB : Par 71

<http://www.relais-margaux.fr>

The schedules of tides are shown in the Clubhouse, you will quickly understand why. A magnificent course which goes along the Gironde, an unusual landscape between dikes and forest, which can continue at the Relais de Margaux with its gastronomic restaurant, Brasserie or Spa.

DINNER AT « LA TUPINA »

You will find in this restaurant all the best products of the morning market and also of the regional producers. For your pleasure, menus are traditional and typical of the South-West traditions with simple preparations and tasty products. You will also have a large choice of very good wines to be served with your meal.

VISIT & DINNER AT A “CHATEAU”

You will experience the exquisite wines of Château Margaux in their Palladian style chateau. It is said that Château Margaux typifies the wines of its commune more than any other of the 1st Growths. Your dinner will be in a famous Château. You will also taste different flavours and try many of Sauternes best wines. You will be able to visit the caves and vineyards of the “Château” during your stay.

IGFR – Pre-Tour in Bordeaux
